The deadline to return SBA economic injury disaster loan applications is June 14, 2019.

Direct Temporary Housing Assistance

FEMA is providing Direct Temporary Housing Assistance in 13 counties: Bladen, Brunswick, Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Duplin, Jones, Lenoir, New Hanover, Onslow, Pamlico, Pender and Robeson. Travel trailers and manufactured housing units are provided for eligible households displaced from their homes.

Sheltering and Temporary Essential Power (STEP)

The Sheltering and Temporary Essential Power (STEP) provides basic, partial repairs to make homes safe, clean and secure to help North Carolina homeowners with minor damage from Hurricane Florence get back in their home quickly. The deadline to request participation in the program has passed. Eligible reimbursable work was completed April 2.

Disaster Tax Relief

Survivors of Hurricane Florence may qualify for tax relief from the Internal Revenue Service. Taxpayers may be eligible for deadline extensions to file returns or pay taxes and may be able to claim qualified disaster losses. The IRS may waive fees and expedite requests from survivors. To download forms and publications, go to IRS or call 800-829-3676. For general tax questions, call 800-829-1040.

Unmet Needs

FEMA works closely with state, federal, faith-based and voluntary agency partners. Survivors who do not qualify for FEMA disaster assistance may call 2-1-1, the statewide information and referral service for basic unmet needs—such as food or cleaning supplies and help to pay utility bills and child-care expenses. Individuals who may have suffered losses not covered by state or local government programs may also utilize Disaster Case Management services. The state has contracted with experienced case managers who will work with faith-based and volunteer organizations to help meet survivors' unmet needs. To contact the Disaster Case Management service provider, please email: DCMNC@Endeavors.org or call one of the two offices:

- Residents of Anson, Bladen, Brunswick, Chatham, Columbus, Cumberland, Durham, Guilford, Harnett, Hoke, Johnston, Lee, Moore, New Hanover, Orange, Richmond, Robeson, Sampson, Scotland and Union counties should call the Fayetteville office at (910) 672-6175
- Residents of Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Duplin, Greene, Hyde, Jones, Lenoir, Onslow, Pamlico, Pender, Pitt, Wayne, and Wilson counties should call the Jacksonville office at (910) 378-4913

Insurance Hotline

If you need help with your insurance claim or settlements, call the North Carolina Department of Insurance at 855-408-1212. For more information, go to NC Hurricane Claims.

Disaster Fraud Hotline

If you suspect fraud, waste, abuse or mismanagement of disaster relief operations, you can report it by calling the National Center for Disaster Fraud Hotline at 866-720-5721 or email disaster@leo.gov, and/or FEMA's Office of the Chief Security Officer (OCSO) Tip Line at 866-223-0814 or email FEMA-OCSO-Tipline@fema.dhs.gov. Calls can be made anonymously and confidentially.
